

Packington Men's Group (PMG)

Ten PMG members enjoyed a gentle July afternoon of bowling at the Prior Park grounds of the Ashby Bowling Club. Among impromptu teams an unexpectedly high level of competitive endeavour ensued. Some very promising "draw shots" and two simply outstanding "touchers" were seen, making this an almost addictive sport. Afterwards, we were treated to a fine spread of sandwiches and cakes in the club house. Our thanks to the Club President, Gwen Ikin, for her Club's outstanding hospitality, and to Mike for organising the afternoon.

On Thursday 13th August at 8 am, we meet for the PMG Annual Breakfast, this year vehicle-free at the Packington Bull & Lion, a former traditional PMG breakfast venue, with no need for village residents to drive long distances. Meeting at 8am, for our full breakfast to be served at 8:15am, we expect to enjoy convivial social interaction as well as hear a short talk after the meal. Tickets at £5 are available from Treasurer

Wally on 416786 - please make contact early to confirm your place

Date for your Diary: Thursday 10th September 2009 at 2pm we have an afternoon visit to the "Highfields Happy Hens" at Etwall Derbyshire. This amazing farm facility also provides a refuge to help young offenders, with an astoundingly high success rate. Please tell David on 560228 if you can come, by Monday 17 August.
