

Packington Men's Group (PMG)

On Thursday 12th August 2010 at 8 am, we meet for a social highlight of our year, the PMG Annual Breakfast, to be held again at our own historic village restaurant, the Packington Bull & Lion, whose owners Stewart and Sue Andrews last year showed amazing hospitality by themselves assisting their staff to serve us a fine feast of a Great British Breakfast. This year we are to have a bonus, an after-breakfast talk by eminent guest speaker Vivienne Faull, who is of course The Very Reverend Dean of Leicester and has become well-known as a practiced and thought-provoking speaker. RSVP - please contact early our PMG Treasurer Wally Instrall on 416786 to secure your place, as far in advance as possible, and please confirm at absolute latest by Monday 9th August. The full breakfast cost is £6.50

The Dean of Leicester

Dates for your Diary: On Thursday 9th September 2010 at 1pm we leave for a 2pm visit and guided tour of the National Brewery Centre at Burton upon Trent. This much-revamped heritage attraction includes a brewing museum where live character performers will serve us real ale - 4 tastings are part of the £6.50 price of the visit. The transport museum, the Tap Bar and Restaurant, and the coffee shop, are additional attractions of this venue. Please tell David on 560228 if you can come, by Monday 6th September, and say if you need or can offer transport.

On Thursday 14th October we go "Up before the Beak" to hear an evening talk in the Memorial Hall about The Life of a Magistrate - arranged by a well-known Packington resident who is one!
