

Packington Men's Group In March, 17 PMG members visited the amazing Aeropark Museum at East Midlands Airport, assisted in our tour of the static aircraft display by 3 of the Aeropark Volunteers Association. As well as the huge Vulcan pictured above, we saw Nimrod, Varsity, Hunter, Meteor, and many other former military aircraft and helicopters. For one of our members, this was his first time ever in an aircraft, as we toured the display VC10 airliner and he sat happily in the pilot's seat. Afterwards we enjoyed warming up with tea and cake at Beth's Kitchen cafe, at the Priory in Breedon. Please join us on Wednesday 8th April 2015 at 6pm at Packington's Bull and Lion Inn for a PMG themed Party Evening, the last in our series of 4 patron saints of the UK, St George and England. OK - Who was St George? What's all this about slaying dragons? As well as a sit-down meal with typical English dishes in a very English pub setting, there will be time to socialise, some

Roast Beef	Fish & Chips		Mains
Bread & Butter Pud	Apple Pie	Ice Cream	Desserts

Menu - please choose Main and Dessert courses!

entertainment, and a short presentation on St George to answer those questions! Please note the revised date and early time, 6pm on Wednesday NOT Thursday!

RSVP! please contact treasurer Wally Instrall on 416786 with your above menu choices, and arrange to pay your £10 cost, by Sunday 5th April. - For more on PMG : see the front
